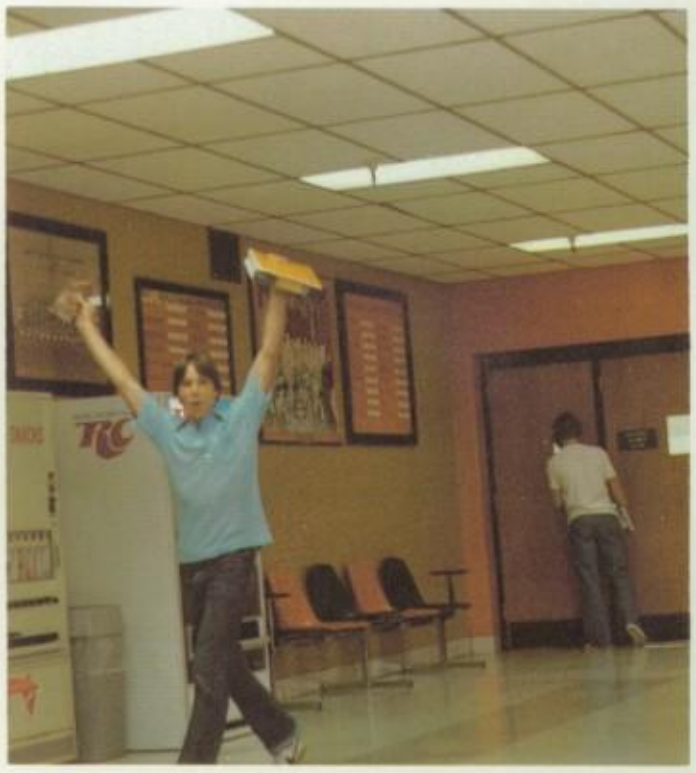
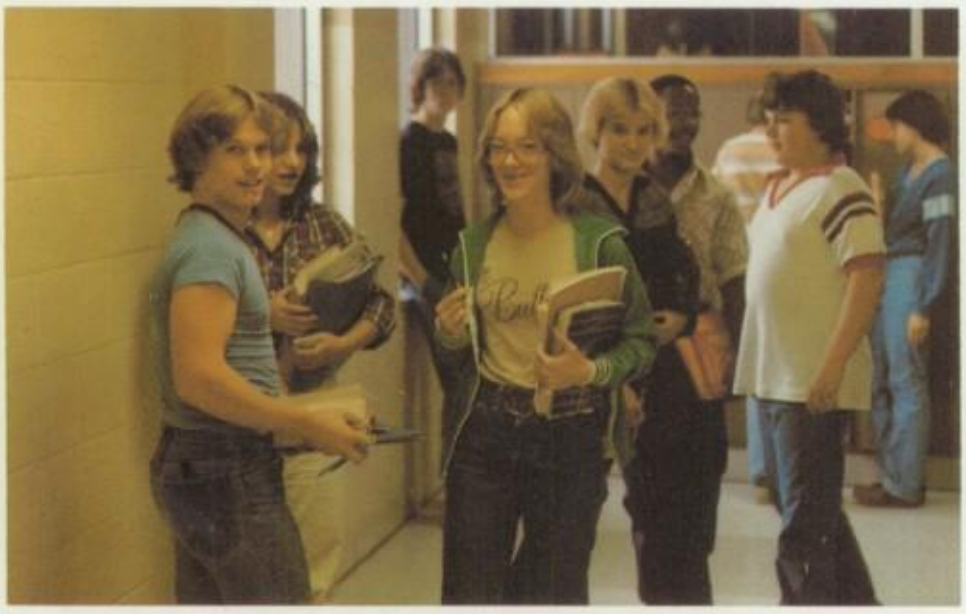
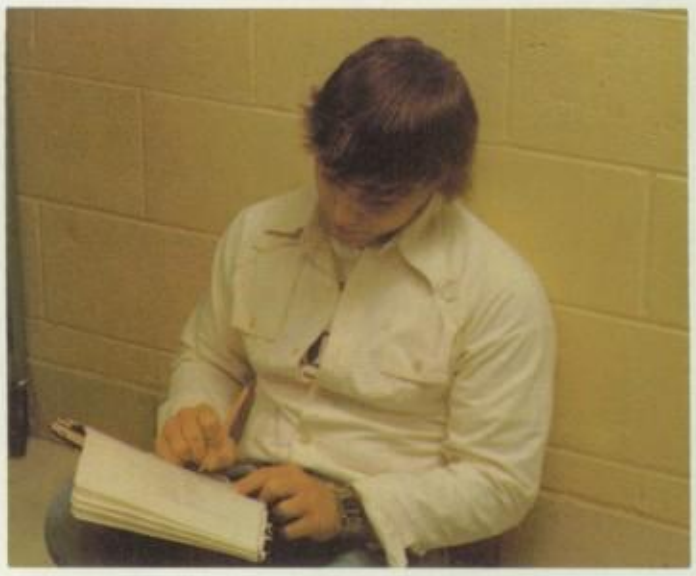
We've only just begun . . .



"On top of the world"



"To go or not to go, that is the question"



"What a night"

"This is a waste"

"But we don't want to go to class"

"Another day"

TOGETHER!

"CHARGE"

"What a day"

"That's a No No"

"Reunited again"

"All Right!"

"Ain't no stoppin us now"

"Just the way you are . . ."

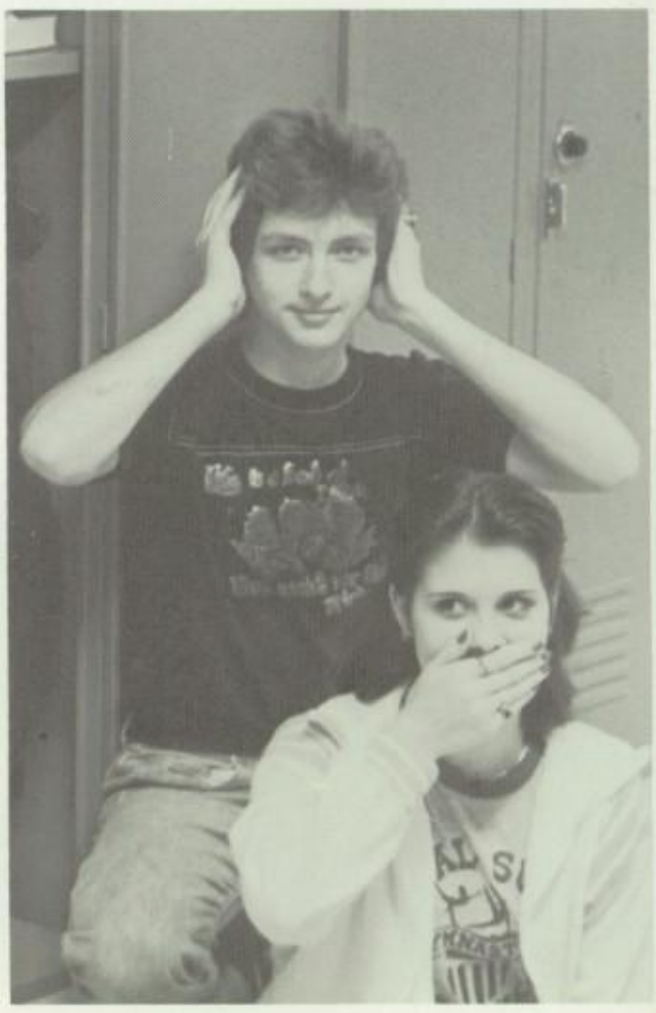
"Round em up"

"Cheese it up"

"Who done it?"

"A Rookie?"

"Pate's Angels"

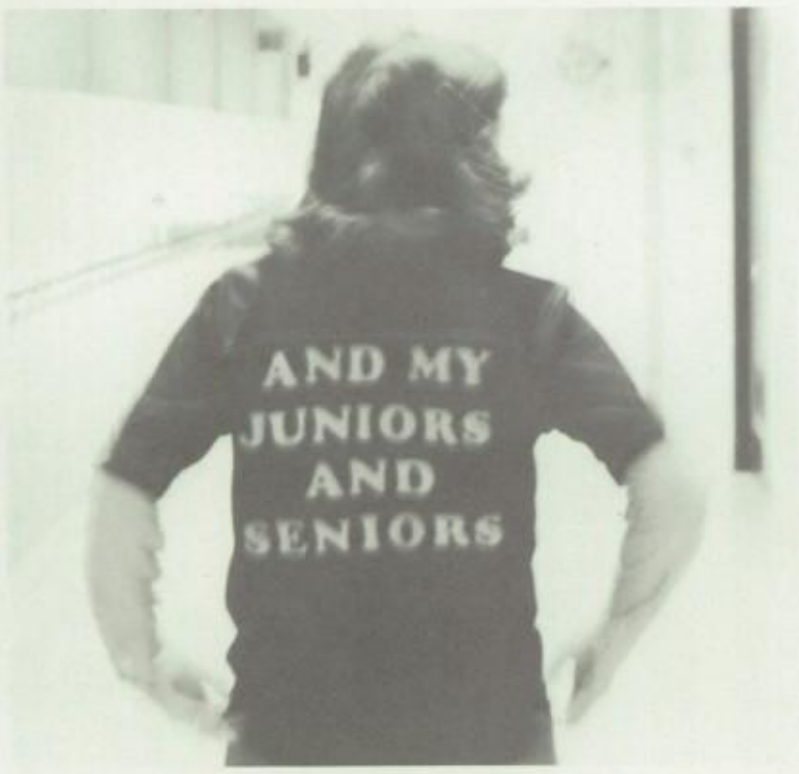


"You're kidding"

"Don't go changing . . ."

"Blow hard-Koehn"

"Poodle"



"I love my Rookies"

"Send help — please"

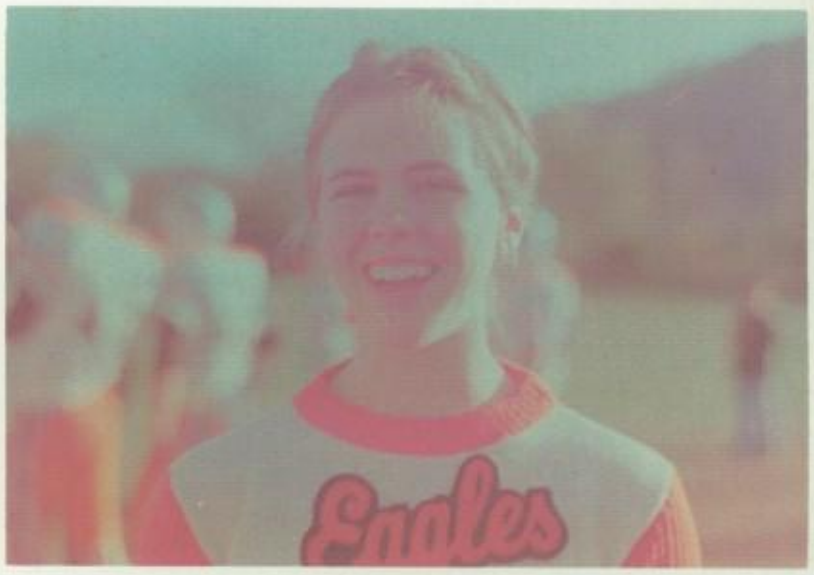
"Help"

"Lookin-Good"

"What do you call this stuff"

"Get off my back"

"Take me out to the ball game . . ."



"Did he go by?"

"Yum! Yum!"

"Ready Boys?"

"Here we go again!"

"Hey man, cool Doug"

"I'm coming"

"Just a few more minutes, please?"

"I see you"

"Who, us?"

"Oh, Scarlett"

"One, two, ready, begin"

"What's here?"

"This is life!"

"I need another piece"

"Look this way"

"But look here"

"Beauty and the Beasts"

"You've got the cutest little . . ."

Make new friends . . .”

“My turn?”

“Taking care of business”

“How are you doing?”

“I don’t mind the wait, it’s the food that bothers me”

“Early morning delight”

“You have to have that read by 2nd period?”

“One more time”

“How to keep fit”

. . . But keep the old. ”

“I’ll forget you ever said that.”

“Come and get us!”

“Cram, not us!”

“How dare you?”

“Well I’ve never seen anything like that?”

“Us?”

“Friends?”

“Me?”

"Work and work

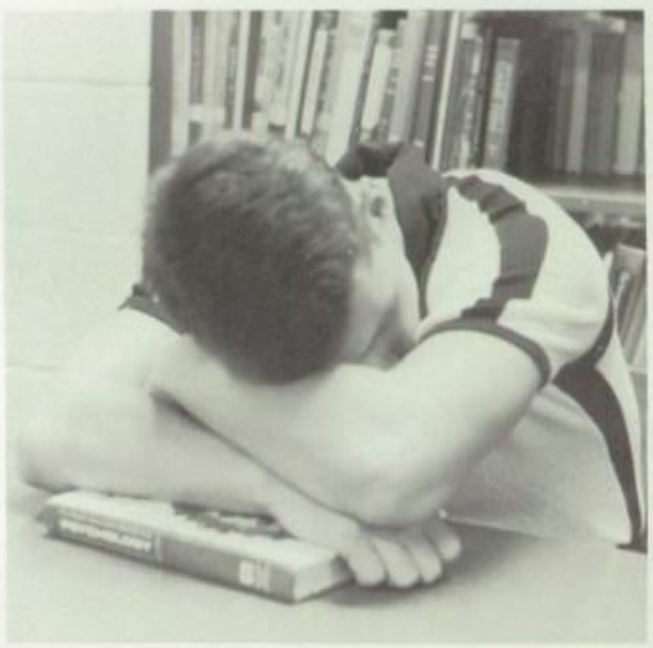
"Gulp — Gulp — Gulp"

"Hard at work"

"Where did they go this time?"

"You call this work"

"This is the life"



"It's been a hard day's night."

"You mean class has already started?"

"What is this?"

your fingers to the bone . . . "

"A big mess"

"Together Again."

"Students, hurry to class."

"What a doll."

"The champ."

"And they say Chorale is good."

"Ham it up, Ricky."

"Get 'em while you can."

"You mean this is a class?"

Last Will

I, Angie Burdette, being of sound mind and body, will all my drawing equipment to Bumgardner because when-and-if he grows up, he wants to become an architect. To Lisa Chisler, I leave all my Algebra Bedtime Stories so Aunt Hazel can read them to her. Don't fall asleep, Kids! And to Patty Loos I leave my Assistant Basketball Coaching Position. Good Luck, Patty, you'll need it.

I, Kim Staples, being of somewhat sound mind and no body do hereby will and bequeath all famous Staples luck to anybody with enough courage, strength, willingness, and sense of adventure, that would PLEASE accept it.

I, Rex Roberts, being of sound mind and perfect body, leave my favorite and only Spanish teacher, Brenda Koehn, a one-way ticket to Spain. To Marsha Humphreys I leave my nude pen in hopes that she will not get bored on her daily flight pattern to the clouds. To Jane Riling I will a new diet in hopes that she will stop telling everyone she is getting fat, and to Becky Bayes and Renee Cobbs I leave all the empty parking spaces combined in hopes that they will be able to park without an accident. And last but not least, I leave Mrs. Thomas the Dark Room.

I, Carla Christy, being of not so sound mind, do hereby leave my ability to miss as many days of school as possible to anyone who thinks they can get away with it without being caught.

I, Scott Eder, being of little mind and crippled body, do hereby will my well turned knee to Andy Brison in hopes that he can make some use of it. I also will my dead tires to the - - - - - that cut them.

I, Adam Gillispie, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave all my respect to Mr. McIlwain.

I, Doug Dent, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have such a good time and stay out of trouble to Dana Nidam, David Walker, and Ronnie Dunham. Also, I will my ability to keep from getting killed in football to Johnny Pate.

I, Bruce Bowyer, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath my 5th period seat in the lunchroom to Renee Cobbs and Becky Bays, my typing eraser (what's left of it) to Tammy Clark, the editorship of this yearbook to Lee Ann Heath, and last but not least, I leave Mrs. Koehn, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Riling, and Mrs. Humphreys a new senior just like me!

I, Debbie Lawrence, being of senior mind and no body, do hereby bequeath my senioritis to any junior who has Mrs. Humphrey for English and to that same junior money to satisfy Mrs. Humphrey's daughter, Beth.

I, Sharon Phillips, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my nervousness in twirling to anyone who is stupid enough to take it. I also will all of my sweaty majorette practice clothes to Karen Burton. To Kelly Lloyd and Toni Wilkson I leave my ability to fail every last one of Miss Shaver's time writings. And last but not least I leave all my old jeans to "Jenx".

and Testament

I, Rita Dudding, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my chair in Mrs. Humphreys' English Class to Lee Ann Heath, on the condition that she will talk as much as I did and continue to drive Mrs. Humphreys crazy!!

I, Ann Breese, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath Mr. Dunlap's undecipherable tests to any poor Sociology student who wants them, and my Willie Stargell baseball (cough-cough!) to Wilbur Jenkins, in hopes that he will enjoy it as much as I.

I, Jan Long, being of deranged mind and questionable body, do hereby leave my great ability at the "Inverted McGucken Two Step" to Joey O'Donnell and three pairs of Legg's knee highs to Corda Wallot.

I, Cindy Watson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to give overcrowded homecoming parties to my brother David, who detests parties.

I, Maggie Christenson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will ROOK to Mac, Murph, and U-ler, my place on Mac's couch to Gal, and to Mary R. a loud alarm clock. I also will my ability to draw Jimmy Carter to Jani Uhler and my position on the yearbook staff to anyone on next year's staff who can mess up as well as I can.

I, Amy Blankinship, being of no mind and no body, leave my memories of the Mardi Gras to "Spot" Struthers, my seat in stageband to Marcy Bernard; and anything that has to do with being a senior to next year's seniors. To my sweetheart, David, I leave all the poison ivy plants in Kanawha State Forest.

I, Jody Asbury, being of sound mind and no body, do hereby will and bequeath my jokes and crude comments to Heath, my love of a special place to a crazy group of rookies, my stool in Chemistry to anyone, and my ability to be bummed out the rest of the day to Miss Buery. To Kelley "Weiner" Lloyd, I leave all my T-shirts, sweatshirts, and all the happiness in the world.

I, Patty Backlund, being of what was a reasonably sound mind before attending SCHS, and definitely no body, hereby bequeath all Locoste alligator shirts, oxford collar blouses, docksides, and cheenos to anyone here at SC who dares to be PREPPIE!!

I, Cheryl Broyles, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my inability to write a will to Amy Steele.

Jimmy Woolwine . . .

Love Was His Life

by Chuck Landon

Your name was James C. Woolwine, but everyone who knew you called you "Jimmy." Love was your life. You loved your family, you loved your church and you loved your basketball. You loved living, too.

You did it with such courage and faith, people enjoyed watching you live. Your faith in God was a shining example to everyone. You never hesitated to lean on the Lord. Perhaps that's where you got your tremendous courage.

When a heart attack fell you at the age of 34, you refused to give in. And when another heart attack struck three years ago, you fought still harder. Even when open heart surgery was ordered and a doctor said you'd never run again, your iron will and unbending faith didn't crumple.

You stunned doctors with your recovery and you were back officiating basketball in 10 months. You amazed people with your comeback. But you weren't surprised. You had faith God would take care of you.

Your faith was a strange and wonderful thing. It flowed as strong as the Mississippi and as deep as the Pacific, but as quietly as the Elk. You didn't wear your faith on your whistle. Instead you pinned it deep inside, next to your heart. That's where you needed it.

Your faith soothed many worried minds, too. You made a habit of visiting hospital patients. You visited Daily Mail sports editor Bill Smith several times before his surgery. Your visits meant much to him. That's the kind of person you were.

You loved life and you worked to help others love it, too. That was your real profession. FMC was just a paycheck.

You didn't only give love, however. You received it, too. You were an easy man to love. Many did.

That's why we feel so robbed by your death Sunday night. A fire at FMC took your life but it robbed us of you. Perhaps that's selfish, but that's how you made people feel.

Your 48-year love of life simply seems too short. We need more of you, not less. It's like your nephew, South Charleston High School head basketball coach Bill Walton, used to say, "Jimmy is a better man than referee." He was kidding, but he was right. And, you were a good referee.

To be honest, I found myself often admiring you. Your quiet faith and never-ending devotion impressed me. That's odd, I suppose, because most admired men are larger than life, extraordinary persons.

You were just an ordinary man. Yet, you were such a good ordinary man.

Your name was Jimmy Woolwine and love was your life. Sunday you left us. We'll miss you.

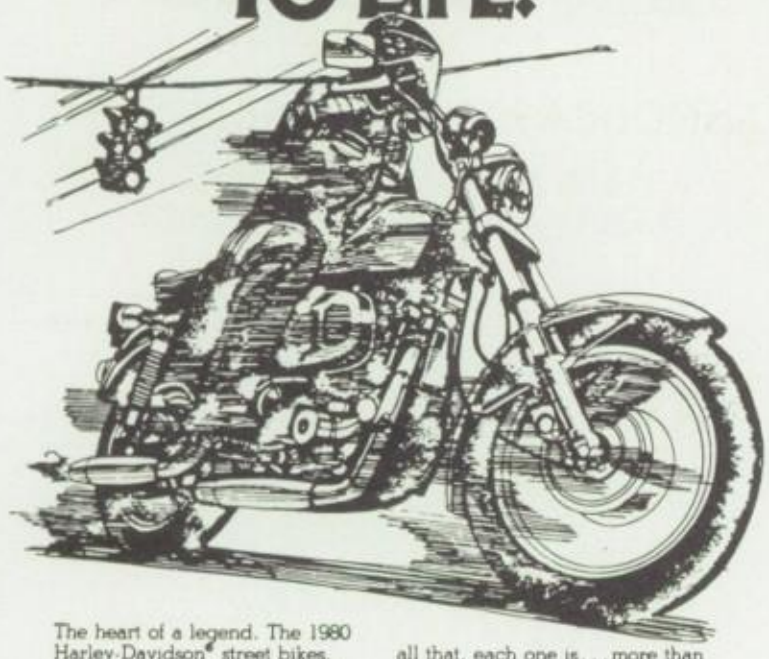
BRING A LEGEND TO LIFE.



The heart of a legend. The 1980 Harley-Davidson® street bikes. Sportster, Super Glide and Fat Bob. The standard in looks and styling. Glistening chrome and steel. Massive V-Twin engines with stump pulling muscle. But beyond all that, each one is . . . more than a machine.

Come see the 1980 Harley-Davidson street bikes today. You'll find that the legend is not only alive, it's thriving.

Career Days 1980

Barbara works at the State Police Barracks.

Learning how to take a pulse.

Listening to a speaker.

Looking at records.

Rex files at the State Police Barracks.

Career Day, under the direction of Mr. Covey, was held on April 22nd and 23rd. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors visited different businesses and actually worked on these jobs in order to determine if students were actually interested in this type of occupation after high school. Plants, hospitals, the State House, police station, and many other businesses in South Charleston and the surrounding area helped to make this another educational adventure.

Linda learns what to do.

Filling out forms! Ugh!

A smile on the job.

Looking good!

X-ray vision.

Busy at work.

"Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."

— Winston Churchill
